Tinfoil Hats & the Antichrist Plan

Did You Bring Your Tinfoil Hat?

We all know that conspiracy theorists are known to wear hats made of aluminum foil. We learn in an article from dictionary.com:

In the 19th century, a tinfoil hat was a kind of party hat. The phrase took a turn, though, in the 20th century. A 1920s sci-fi short story, “The Tissue-Culture King” by Julian Huxley, featured characters wearing “caps of metal foil” to evade mind-control waves.

Huxley’s headwear illustrates the core concept of the tinfoil hat: It acts as a kind of Faraday cage to block various kinds of electromagnetic waves. We can find the specific phrase tinfoil hat in the 1980s, by which time it had become associated with individuals who would wear them in the belief they would protect them nefarious rays seeking to surveil, brainwash, or otherwise influence them.

In the 1980–90s, tinfoil hat became a shorthand for a “conspiracy theorist”—you know, JFK, moon landing, and later, 9/11 truthers. A 1997 internet commenter observed that tinfoil hat was “the oldest insult” on Usenet.

Do these tinfoil hats actually protect anyone from brain control of any kind? Since we’d have to have system that accomplishes it and then a person who stopped it with the aluminum hat we won’t know. But the tinfoil hat is widely seen as a sign of people who are serious conspiracy theorists and it is part of our culture to this day. But is there one out there that fit in with Bible prophecy? Actually, there is.

Project Blue Beam

The recent rash of drones over New Jersey put this so called project to the forefront again. This conspiracy isn’t a new one, though. We get an overview from an article on it:

The conspiracy theory surrounding Project Blue Beam originated in the early 1990s, when a Canadian by the name of Serge Monast asserted to have discovered a NASA and UN covert scheme to pull off a gigantic fraud on the world’s population. Monast claims that Project Blue Beam used cutting-edge holographic technology along with mind-control methods to create the illusion of an extraterrestrial invasion or a supernatural event, like the Second Coming of Christ (Monast, 2012).

Did you catch that throw in sentence? Yes, Monast thinks that the Second Coming of Christ could be part of Project Blue Beam. But the concept actually points to the Antichrist:

According to the concept, governments from all over the world would cooperate with strong institutions like NASA and the UN to produce lifelike holographic projections of religious figures or alien spacecraft in the sky. They would use advanced mind control methods, such as the deployment of subliminal messages or high-frequency radio waves, in conjunction with these projections to trick the audience into believing the event was real.

And it’s goal is to bring about the one world government to fruition. And that certainly should sound familiar to anyone who knows about end time prophecies:

The theory's proponents contend that Project Blue Beam's ultimate objective is to establish the New World Order, or a single, worldwide government ruled by one entity. The hypothesis suggests that staging a centralized world government as an alien invasion or religious event would make the public more receptive to accepting it as a method of thwarting the perceived threat or achieving religious predictions (Tench, 2019)

A Four Step Process

According to a paper by Serge Monast himself there are four parts of this program:

What is important to understand in the first step is that those earthquakes will hit at different parts of the world where scientific and archaeological teachings have indicated that arcane mysteries have been buried. By those types of earthquakes, it will be possible for scientists to rediscover those arcane mysteries which will be used to discredit all fundamental religious doctrines. This is the first preparation for the plan for humanity because what they want to do is destroy the beliefs of all Christians and Muslims on the planet. To do that, they need some false 'proof' from the far past that will prove to all nations that their religions have all been misinterpreted and misunderstood.

Ever hear of a one world religion? Well Monast just told you a way it could happen. That's step one, here's step two:

The second step in the NASA Blue Beam Project involves a gigantic 'space show' with three-dimensional optical holograms and sounds, laser projection of multiple holographic images to different parts of the world, each receiving a different image according to predominating regional national religious faith. This new 'god's' voice will be speaking in all languages. In order to understand that, we must study various secret services' research done in the last 25 years. The Soviet's have perfected an advanced computer, even exported them, and fed them with the minute physio-psychological particulars based on their studies of the anatomy and electromechanical composition of the human body, and the studies of the electrical, chemical and biological properties of the human brain. These computers were fed, as well, with the languages of all human cultures and their meanings. The dialects of all cultures have been fed into the computers from satellite transmissions. The Soviets began to feed the computers with objective programs like the ones of the new messiah. It also seems that the Soviets - the new world order people - have resorted to suicidal methods with the human society by allocating electronic wavelengths for every person and every society and culture to induce suicidal thoughts if the person doesn't comply with the dictates of the new world order.

That's a lot to digest, but this second step can be fulfilled in two sub steps one of which Bible prophecy students will quickly connect the dots.

A False Christ

Monast sees what he calls a space show and explains how it will work:

The first is the 'space show.' Where does the space show come from? The space show, the holographic images will be used in a simulation of the ending during which all nations will be shown scenes that will be the fulfillment of that which they desire to verify the prophecies and adversary events.

These will be projected from satellites onto the sodium layer about 60 miles above the earth. We see tests every once in a while, but they are called UFOs and "flying saucers" sightings.

The result of these deliberately staged events will be to show the world the new 'christ,' the new messiah, Matraia (Maitreya), for the immediate implementation of the new world religion. Enough truth will be foisted upon an unsuspecting world to hook them into the lie. "Even the most learned will be deceived."

Hmmm, that sounds like scripture:

And then the lawless one (the antichrist) will be revealed and the Lord Jesus will slay him with the breath of His mouth and bring him to an end by His appearing at His coming.

9 The coming [of the lawless one, the antichrist] is through the activity and working of Satan and will be attended by great power and with all sorts of [pretended] miracles and signs and delusive marvels—[all of them] lying wonders—10 And by unlimited seduction to evil and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing (going to perdition) because they did not welcome the Truth but refused to love it that they might be saved. 11 Therefore God sends upon them a misleading influence, a working of error and a strong delusion to make them believe what is false, 12 In order that all may be judged and condemned who did not believe in [who refused to adhere to, trust in, and rely on] the Truth, but [instead] took pleasure in unrighteousness. (2 Thess 2:8-12, AMPC)

I'm not saying this is the way this false religion will happen, but it sure makes sense. However if these holograms have images of all the world religion leaders telling people that all they know about them is false and they need to follow the real Christ and it could be part of that delusion the Apostle Paul talked about:

Then the projections of Jesus, Mohammed, Buddha, Krishna, etc., will merge into one after correct explanations of the mysteries and revelations will have been disclosed. This one god will, in fact, be the Antichrist, who will explain that the various scriptures have been misunderstood and misinterpreted, and that the religions of old are responsible for turning brother against brother, and nation against nation, therefore old religions must be abolished to make way for the new age new world religion, representing the one god Antichrist they see before them.

But the next sub step is curious as well.

A Rapture?

Yes, there could be a great taking away from earth of those who aren't believing the lies:

The project has perfected the ability for some device [referred to as "tractor beams" by ufologists].to lift up an enormous number of people, as in a Rapture, and whisk the entire group into a never-never land We see tests of this device in the abduction of humans by those mysterious little alien greys who snatch people out of their beds and through windows into waiting "mother ships." The calculated resistance to the universal religion and the new messiah and the ensuing holy wars will result in the loss of human life on a scale never imagined before in all of human history.

The Blue Beam Project will pretend to be the universal fulfillment of the prophecies of old, as major an event as that which occurred 2,000 years ago. In principle, it will make use of the skies as a movie screen (on the sodium layer at about 60 miles) as space-based laser-generating satellites project simultaneous images to the four corners of the planet in every language and dialect according to the region. It deals with the religious aspect of the new world order and is deception and seduction on a massive scale.

Popular science fiction shows like Star Trek already planted the seeds of such technology and then you add in the talk of alien abductions and this fits right in with tearing down Christianity to pave the way for a one world religion.

The Third Step: Diffuse Artificial Thought

The next part of Project Bluebeam that again sounds a lot like the strong delusion is really pushing conspiracy theories to a higher level:

The advancement of techniques propel us toward the third step in the Blue Beam Project that goes along with the telepathic and electronically augmented two-way communication where ELF, VLF and LF waves will reach each person from within his or her own mind, convincing each of them that their own god is speaking to them from the very depths of their own soul. Such rays from satellites are fed from the memories of computers that have stored massive data about every human on earth, and their languages. The rays will then interlace with their natural thinking to form what we call diffuse artificial thought.

Does such technology really exist? Apparently it does:

Their findings, of course, stated that the United States has already developed communications equipment which can make the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk. It can relieve the terminally ill from pain without the use of drugs or surgery. I'm not talking about science fiction. A man might retain the use of all his faculties right up to the moment of his death. This communications equipment depends upon a completely new way of looking at the human brain and neuromuscular systems and radiation pulses at ultra-low frequencies. Some of this equipment is now operational within the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

And part of step three is also the ability to feed lies into people's minds, again a strong delusion tactic:

The third step in the NASA Blue Beam Project is called the Telepathic Electronic Two-Way Communication. Lt. Col John Alexander's article continues:

"If it is possible to feed artificial thought into the multigenic field via satellite, the mind control of the entire planet is now possible. An individual's only resistance would be to constantly question the motivation behind their thoughts and not act upon thoughts which they consider to be outside their own ideological, religious and moral boundaries."

Once again, it is wise to consider how television, advertising, modern education and various types of social pressure are used to manipulate those boundaries. It has been reported by Lt. Col Alexander who said, in the summary of his Military Review article, 'The information on those kinds of technologies presented here would be considered by some to be ridiculous since it does not conform to their view of reality. But some people still believe the world is flat.'...(This is exactly what happens to people who are convinced by Satan into believing that he doesn't exist, so they have no defence against him. - JAH.

Create A Global Crisis

The fourth step has essentially worked with the recent pandemic. Whether you believed it was real or not doesn't matter. People gave up freedom for safety and did so willingly. And if sufficient fear can be created, according to those who think Project Blue Beam people will panic if an alien invasion appears to happen:

One is to make mankind believe that an alien (off-world) invasion is about to occur at every major city on earth in order to provoke each major nation to use its nuclear weapons in order to strike back. This way, the United Nations Court will require that all those nations which launched nuclear weapons to disarm when the invasion is shown to have been false. And how will the United Nations know that the invasion was false? They will have staged it, of course. The second is to make the Christians believe that the Rapture is going to occur with the supposed divine intervention of an alien (off-world) civilization coming to rescue earthlings from a savage and merciless demon. Its goal will be to dispose of all significant opposition to the implementation of the New World Order in one major stroke, actually within hours of the beginning of the sky show!

Manast then tells us how this could lead to the phasing out of cash and independence. This he sees as a worldwide financial collapse that pushes people to want a secure solution to get us out of it. Manast ends his paper by telling us this:

The new technology is designed and built to track down and control people everywhere. This technology is being manufactured for a specific purpose and to refuse to see and recognize that purpose, which is to enslave the entire populations of the world, is to deny the emergence of the Antichrist and the establishment of the new world order religion and government. If you cannot see, if you cannot learn, if you cannot understand, then you and your family and friends will succumb to the fires of the crematoria that have been built in every state and every major city on earth, built to deal with you. No one is safe in a totalitarian police state!

Is any of this real? It certainly explains a lot of end time prophecy if it is. But I'm not trying to scare anyone, especially Christians who are supposed to be given to a spirit of fear. Love, power, and a sound mind is our goal and Holy Spirit will lead us into all truth so no fear and a sound mind is ours if we allow Him to work in us and through us. And I might add that the word maranatha is also apropos for it means "Lord is coming" or "come, O Lord." And it can't come fast enough.
