Julie Green Heard From God: JD Vance Shows Great White Wolf Colors

He Loves Iran, He Loves Them Not

It's hard to follow all the many declarations coming from US President Donald Trump when it comes to Iran. A deal is close, he tells us. Stop fighting so it can happen. Then he attacks Iran after they take down one of our helicopters. He says more attacks will happen and then he says they won't. Now he announces that an understanding has been reached which will lead to more talks. Maybe he wants to strike again, but doesn't want to do it because of the start of the World Cup soccer tournament. All the while Iran doesn't care as long as they aren't being bombed into oblivion so they can rebuild what they lost. If a deal is reached it will only be to begin nuclear talks. Again. Apparently Israel was caught off guard with the latest announcement since some sources say that they weren't kept in the loop on it. All the while Hezbollah is gearing up for more attacks on Israel, attacks that Trump tells Netanyahu to not respond to so that the nuclear talks can move forward. I don't know about you, but my neck needs to be on a swivel to survive all these twists and turns swirling around the situation in and around Israel. If Trump has a plan I sure can't figure it out. Many of us who love Israel and pray for them as God instructs us would love to have a briefing from Holy Spirit on what is really happening. Are the people in the White House pushing Trump to get a deal and move on? I think that's happening. That would play on Trump's stated desire to end wars and not start them. And it plays into many prophetic words that the Vice President J D Vance is pushing against supporting Israel and fighting the war on Iran.

Showing His True Colors

The man Julie Green said God told her was the Great White Wolf could be seen as exactly that. In a video from Sky News Australia guest Ami Horowitz said that Vance is not playing nice with his boss:

Look, Vance has been, if you ask people — not publicly, but if you ask people behind the scenes about Vance — he is very unsupportive of the president and his foreign policy in particular. He's been an issue in the White House, and yeah, I think this is going to be a battle for the soul of the Republican Party. We'll see what happens. Fascinating.

In another news article, this one from Time.com the divide is made clear:

resident Donald Trump said he and Vice President J.D. Vance were “philosophically, a little bit different” in their initial viewpoints on the Iran war.

“I think he was maybe less enthusiastic about going [to war], but he was quite enthusiastic. I felt it was something we had to do,” the President told reporters Monday.

Despite any differences, Trump denied there were disagreements between himself and Vance over the military action, saying they “get along very well on this.”

But the article goes on to note that Vance was quite adamant on not starting wars on the 2024 campaign trail. And there are reports he sees the war will be a drag on his presidential aspirations if it isn't calmed down soon. As it is, his influence in the White House is waning as we read in another article, this time from The Atlantic:

Yet Iran is just the latest example of a noticeable trend: Within the Trump administration, Vance's opinions seem to matter less and less. On foreign affairs, Vance was on the isolationist end of the MAGA coalition, which now includes people, such as Secretary of State Marco Rubio, who have previously been fervid advocates of American intervention abroad.

The Washington Post described Vance as politically “in a bind,” saying people close to him recognized that a long conflict could be a problem for a future GOP nominee. And we need to remember that Vance was less than kind to Trump when he ran back in 2016 where he actually called him America’s Hitler as we’re told in a Reuters article:

"I go back and forth between thinking Trump is a cynical ahole like Nixon who wouldn't be that bad (and might even prove useful) or that he's America's Hitler," he wrote privately to an associate on Facebook in 2016.

Can A Leopard Change It’s Spots?

Julie Green went viral for revealing Vance as the Great White Wolf back in January of this year. Here is a little of what she heard God told her back then:

Many are not ready to hear this. It would have caused confusion and even offense against My Words if this information had been given out too soon, because so many people are living by sight and not by faith. This traitor, this snake, must be revealed so he can be removed. I am revealing him to you now, My children, so you can pray against him and his assignments, and pray that his mask is completely removed. JD Vance is the great white wolf. The Deep State put him next to President Trump because the plan was for President Trump not to complete his full second term, and when he did not, then they would have their guy take his place. My children, it is all fake. It is a facade of who he really is. He is not who he appears to be. He is not a friend of My David. He is being used to spy on and sabotage your president, to deceive him in every way possible. The whole thing with the Secret Service being against him was to make it appear that the Deep State was after him, too, when they were not. That was all for show. JD Vance's ties to the swamp will soon be revealed, and so will many others next to your president.

Green mentioned that then AG Pam Bondi would leave her post and that happened so we need to remember that when we factor in the accuracy of these words. That word was from January 17th and Green got another word on March 6, 2026, where she talked about removals from Trump's team and she called out Vance again:

The wolf pack will be shaken and torn apart. The more they resist, the more obvious it will be as to which side they are on. JD Vance will soon start to show his true colors, and it will become more obvious that he is not the man to ever lead this nation.

I must add that I don’t think Vance is an evil man. My instincts tell me he just needs to get out of the way of God’s will for Israel and Iran and their proxies now.

One Last Voice

I think Green is hearing from God and Vance’s influence needs to decrease. And I like how Israeli Amir Tsarfati sees thing now:

Many of you may think that I am angry, frustrated, or even disappointed. Nothing could be further from the truth. I am amazed, excited, and deeply humbled to be living in the days when Bible prophecy is unfolding before our very eyes. For more than 30 years, I have taught that the day would come when Iran would join a coalition led by Russia and joined by Turkey, united in their determination to destroy Israel. I have taught that Damascus would become a heap of ruins. I have also taught that no nation - including America - will come to Israel's military aid. And finally, I have taught that Israel's survival will not ultimately depend on its own weapons or defense systems. God Himself will intervene. God Himself will fight. God Himself will prevail.

He ends this post with prophetic hope from God Himself:

“So I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.” (Ezekiel 38:23, NKJV)
That is why I am neither fearful, frustrated, nor disappointed. I am simply watching the faithfulness of God’s Word unfold exactly as He promised.
